

AWBW/Los Angeles County Impact

A Window Between Worlds partnering human service agencies facilitated healing arts workshops with 12,743 participants throughout Los Angeles County in 2016.

In 2016 AWWB...

launched

8 new adult programs

supported

275 Children's Leaders
at 67 partner sites

These Windows Leaders...

facilitated

741 workshops

with

6,393 participants

(each adult participating in an average of 2.6 sessions)

In 2016 AWWB...

launched

8 new children's programs

supported

239 Children's Leaders
at 65 partner sites

These Windows Leaders...

facilitated

1,537 workshops

with

6,350 participants

(each child/youth participating in an average of 2.8 sessions)

Our 80 Los Angeles County partners include:

- Angel Step Inn
- Asian Pacific Women's Center
- Center Against Sexual Assault
- Foothill Family Service
- Habitat for Humanity SF/SCV
- Haven Hills, Inc.
- House of Ruth
- Los Angeles Unified School District
 - Peace Over Violence
 - Prototypes
 - Rainbow Services
 - Su Casa
- The Joe Torre Safe at Home Foundation
- United American Indian Involvement
- WomenShelter Long Beach

Voices of Los Angeles County participants:

"I am now starting to see what joy is."

- Children's Windows Participant, Age 11, YWCA WINGS

"I like the idea of being able to let my true color shine, I have been hiding behind my past."

- Adult Participant, Kaiser Permanente Education Outreach

"This workshop helped us have some family time and helped us work together and practice creativeness."

- Children's Windows Participant, Age 10,
Jewish Family Services

"Never have I felt so safe without having to speak a single word about my assault. This community is unlike any other."

- Adult Participant, UCLA Campus
Assault Resources & Education

"These workshops helped me discover what I've changed and I had not noticed."

- Adult Participant, East Los Angeles
Women's Center

