

AWBW/ Los Angeles Impact

A Window Between Worlds' partnering human service agencies facilitated healing arts workshops with 12,415 participants throughout Los Angeles County in 2017.

In 2017 AWWB...

supported

169 Children's Program Facilitators at 64 partnering organizations in Los Angeles County

These Facilitators...

worked with

5,127 children/youth

(each child/youth participating in an average of 3 sessions)

In 2017 AWWB...

supported

181 Adult Program Facilitators at 69 partnering organizations in Los Angeles County

These Facilitators...

worked with

6,393 adults

(each adult participating in an average of 3 sessions)

Our 79 Los Angeles County partners include:

- Angel Step Inn
- Center Against Sexual Assault
- Center for the Pacific Asian Family
- East Los Angeles Women's Center
- Foothill Family Service
- Good Shepherd Shelter
- Jewish Family Service
- Los Angeles LGBT Center
- Peace Over Violence
- Penny Lane Centers
- Prototypes
- Rainbow Services
- Richstone Family Center
- Su Casa
- The Joe Torre Safe at Home Foundation
- United American Indian Involvement
- UCLA Campus Assault Resources & Education
- WomenShelter Long Beach

Voices of Los Angeles County participants:

"This workshop helped me to think and feel things that were repressed for a long time. I could feel pressure being taken off as I worked on the art project." - Adult Participant, Sojourn, Ocean Park Community Center

"I'm gonna use this to show my mom that our future can be different."

- 12 Year-Old Participant, South Gate Police Department: Family Violence Prevention

"This workshop helped me to see that I am not alone and there are options to resolve my problems. It helped me to express my feelings better."

- Adult Participant, House of Ruth

"I felt free in the workshop. I could express myself, with no one to tell me I am wrong."

- Adult Participant, IMCES (Institute for Multicultural Counseling & Educational Services)

