CELEBRATE THE JOY OF CREATIVITY

A Window Between Worlds (AWBW), a local 501(c)3 nonprofit, invites you to celebrate the joy of creativity at our 20th annual Art in the Afternoon! This community art festival attracts over 600 people from all over Southern California for a day of hands-on art experiences, carnival games, a luxury silent auction, delicious food and drinks, music, an artisan marketplace, and many more activities for all ages.

In AWWB's program, survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault and other forms of trauma create art to safely process their experiences without having to use words. Art workshops take place at partnering organizations across the country, including 80 in Los Angeles. Countless adults and children are affected by violence and trauma, and our program is a nationally recognized resource for opening up communication and moving through the pain towards a brighter future.

Event sponsorship from individuals and corporations like you makes it possible to provide our program partners with training and support, art supply stipends, curriculum development, and in launching and sustaining our arts programming where it is needed most. Please review the attached sponsorship opportunities for this year's event and pledge your gift today. To explore additional ways your company can enhance our event, please contact AWWB's Event Manager, Lindsay Angrisani, at LAngrisani@awbw.org or 310-396-0317 ext. 214. Packages are customized to meet your unique marketing and corporate responsibility goals.

Thank you in advance for your support of this exciting 20th annual community art festival. We look forward to providing a chance for you to experience the healing power of art on Saturday, June 8th at Art in the Afternoon's new venue – the EXPO Center!
