

AWBW/ Los Angeles Impact

A Window Between Worlds' partnering human service agencies facilitated healing arts workshops with 11,280 participants throughout Los Angeles County in 2018.

In 2018 AWWB...

supported

191 facilitators in 131 programs at 82
partnering organizations

These art workshop facilitators...

worked with

5,023 children/youth and 6,257 adults

who participated in workshops

27,945 times

Communities our partners work with:

Domestic Violence	90%
Sexual Assault	68%
Child Abuse/Neglect	44%
Behavioral/Mental Health	40%
Students	39%
Homeless	38%
LGBTQIA	35%
Substance Abuse/Recovery	34%
Immigrant/Refugee	26%
Human Trafficking	25%
Foster Youth	19%
Incarcerated	15%
Gang Involved/Impacted	15%
Other	15%
Veterans/Military	11%

Our Los Angeles partners include:

- Angel Step Inn
- Center Against Sexual Assault
- Center for the Pacific Asian Family
- East Los Angeles Women's Center
- Foothill Family Service
- Jewish Family Service
- Peace Over Violence
 - Penny Lane Centers
 - Prototypes
- Pomona Unified School District
 - Rainbow Services
 - Richstone Family Center
 - South Gate Police Department
 - Su Casa
 - Union Rescue Mission
 - United American Indian Involvement
 - UCLA Campus Assault Resources & Education
 - WomenShelter Long Beach
 - YWCA of San Gabriel Valley - WINGS

Voices of Los Angeles County participants:

"This workshop opened my eyes to so many emotions that I didn't realize I have." - Adult Participant, Long Beach LGBTQ Center

"Leaving my dog with dad makes my heart sad. Doing art makes my heart happy." - 10 Year-Old Participant, Good Shepherd Shelter

"Please do NOT ever stop this extremely important work. My son and I thank you from the bottom of our hearts. You have helped 'save' us and made our lives so much more colorful and bright." - Adult Participant, Sojourn, The People Concern

"I like doing art with others and I will come back" - 7 Year-Old Participant, Pomona Family Violence Treatment Network

