Facilitators reported that the Windows Program helps participants...

- 91%: feel more positive about their future
- 91%: strengthen self-regulation skills
- 94%: build resilience
- 84%: improve relationships

In 2021, we saw a 50% increase in art workshop participants!

Art allows my hands to sing the song that is in my mind.
- Adult Participant, Community Corrections & Counseling Services, Montana

71% of our community partners would not have any arts programming without AWBW

Facilitators reported that the Windows Program helps participants...

- 91%: feel more positive about their future
- 91%: strengthen self-regulation skills
- 94%: build resilience
- 84%: improve relationships

Windows Facilitators currently support participants with these life experiences:

- Domestic Violence
- Substance Abuse
- Sexual Assault
- Pandemic-Related Stress
- Mental Health Needs
- Child Abuse/Neglect
- Grief/Loss
- Restorative/Transformative Justice
- Community Violence
- Human Trafficking
- Incarceration
- Immigration
- Oppression Against LGBTQIA+
- Illness
- People who do harm/Batterers
- Foster Care
- Other
- Student-Related Stress
- Military/Veteran
- Restorative/Transformative Justice

Circles proportionate to percentage of reported areas of support.