

Legacy Investment Opportunities

Supporting Generations of Healing

Building Capacity and Leadership for the Future

AWBW is a leadership incubator of creative, passionate art workshop Facilitators who represent the diverse communities they serve. Our trained Windows Facilitators co-create resources, share best practices, and exchange ideas among their peers, which ultimately strengthens AWWB's programming worldwide. The Tomorrow Fund formalizes and sustains this leadership incubator into the future.

Legacy Gift Options

Legacy Sector Leader:
$100,000+ contribution

Establishes a Sector Leader in perpetuity to support collaboration, innovation and impact of AWWB's network of Facilitators serving this sector.

Annual Full Scholarship:
$60,000 contribution

Creates a named scholarship in perpetuity covering the full cost to train one (1) new Windows Facilitators annually.

Annual Scholarship:
$30,000 contribution

Creates a named scholarship in perpetuity covering half the cost to train one (1) new Windows Facilitators annually.

TOMORROW Fund Phase One:

The Tomorrow Fund will support aspects of our programming in perpetuity, fed by legacy gifts.

Phase One of the Tomorrow Fund is an investment reserve fund of $1 million. We have budgeted for a 4% return on principal to accommodate years with lower market performance

- Helmstetter Family Foundation: $6k
- babs Mayer Fund: $20k
- Santa Monica Westside Legacy Fund for Women and Girls: $40k
- Seed Gift from Sherrill Kahn: $100k
- John Gogian Family Foundation: $210k
- Board-Designated Funds: $257k
- Remaining to Phase 1 Goal: $367k