

AWBW/Join our Board of Directors

Do you believe in the power of art to heal and transform? Do you have skills or expertise that can benefit a nonprofit organization? If so, consider applying to serve on the Board of Directors of A Window Between Worlds.

Healing for survivors of child abuse and neglect, domestic violence, sexual assault, and other forms of trauma can be a long and difficult process. A Window Between Worlds (AWBW)'s mission is to empower children, adults, families and communities affected by trauma through our transformative healing arts program. We train and support human service providers, partnering with them to offer our unique arts curriculum as an opportunity for self-expression, building resilience, and connecting with self and others. Our vision is a world where violence and shame are replaced with safety and hope.

AWBW seeks passionate, thoughtful individuals interested in putting their leadership skills into action. Join our dynamic and growing volunteer Board of Directors in providing strategic direction, governance, and fiduciary oversight for AWWB, along with ensuring and strengthening resources for the organization.

Are you, or do you know someone who could be, a good fit?

Qualified candidates would meet the following criteria:

- Passionate about AWWB's mission and vision
- Demonstrates individual and group leadership skills
- Can participate in six virtual meetings per year
- Committed to annually giving and/or getting at least $2,500 in support of AWWB's critical healing arts program
- Able to make an in-kind contribution in their area of expertise

Currently, candidates with experience in finance, marketing, and fundraising, in are priorities.

AWBW is also committed to fostering, cultivating and maintaining a culture of diversity, equity, and inclusion in our role as an employer, partner, and resource for the communities with which we work. As such, we are seeking candidates that hold similar values and represent the diversity found among the communities we serve.

All interested candidates are encouraged to email board@awbw.org to share about yourself and your interests.
